

February 25, 26, 27, 28, March 4, 5, 6, 7

By Marc Camoletti.

Translated by Beverley Cross and Francis Evans.

Bernard has the perfect Paris bachelor life: three glamorous airline-hostess fiancées, three different airlines, and one carefully calculated timetable that keeps each woman blissfully unaware of the others. Then a faster jet changes the schedules, all three fiancées head for Bernard's apartment, and his foolproof plan hits spectacular turbulence. With his bewildered friend Robert and exasperated housekeeper Berthe scrambling to help, romantic deception becomes door-slamming comic chaos. Revived on Broadway to Tony Award-winning acclaim, Boeing Boeing is a breathlessly funny classic farce where every arrival brings another hilarious near-disaster.

Directed by Paul James

BOEING BOEING is presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals on behalf of Samuel French, Inc.

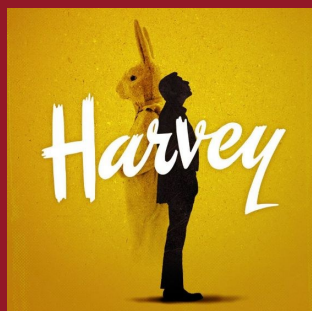

August 5, 6, 7, 8, 12, 13, 14, 15

Written and Originally Directed and Choreographed by Stuart Ross. Musical Continuity Supervision and Arrangements by James Raitt. Originally Produced by Gene Wolsk.

Sparky, Smudge, Jinx, and Frankie were four earnest young singers dreaming of their first big break when a fatal accident ended their careers before they began. Now, through a cosmic twist, the Plaids return for one final chance to perform the concert they never got to give. With gorgeous four-part harmonies, lovable personalities, delightfully awkward choreography, and favorites like "Three Coins in the Fountain," "Heart and Soul," and "Love Is a Many-Splendored Thing," Forever Plaid is a funny, heartfelt, feel-good celebration of friendship, second chances, and the unforgettable music of the 1950s.

Directed by Lynne Snyder

FOREVER PLAID is presented through special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI). All authorized performance materials are also supplied by MTI.

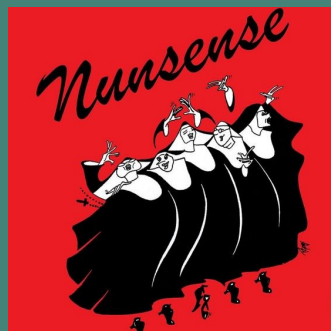

May 20, 21, 22, 23, 27, 28, 29, 30

By Mary Chase

Elwood P. Dowd is unflappably polite, endlessly cheerful, and devoted to his best friend Harvey, an enormous invisible rabbit no one else can see. His socially ambitious sister Veta has finally had enough and decides Elwood must be committed. But when a spectacular mix-up sends Veta into the sanitarium instead, doctors, relatives, and one elusive rabbit turn everything upside down. Winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Drama, Harvey blends irresistible comedy with surprising warmth in a timeless celebration of kindness, individuality, and the wonderfully liberating possibility that "normal" may be overrated.

Directed by Pamela Cilek

HARVEY is presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals on behalf of Dramatists Play Service.

October 28, 29, 30, 31, November 4, 5, 6, 7

Book, Music and Lyrics by Dan Goggin

The Little Sisters of Hoboken have a heavenly problem: after their convent cook accidentally poisons 52 sisters, there is not enough money to bury the final four. Their solution? Take over the school auditorium and stage the most unforgettable fundraiser imaginable. Reverend Mother and her wildly talented sisters sing, dance, tap, joke, compete for the spotlight, and even quiz the audience as the benefit cheerfully spins out of control. Packed with catchy songs, outrageous characters, and irreverent good fun, Nunsense is the beloved musical comedy that proves laughter can truly be habit-forming.

Directed by Ken Clark

NUNSENSE is presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals.
